

Qualification Criteria for the Hockey Champions Trophy 2018

From 2012 onwards, the Hockey Champions Trophy will be played every 2 years in an even year, i.e. in same year as the Olympic Games or World Cup.

The teams qualified for the Champions Trophy 2018 will be as follows

Men

1. The Host – The Netherlands
2. The 2016 Olympic Champions – Argentina
3. The 2014 Hockey World Cup Champions – Australia
4. The 2017 Hockey World League Champions – to be advised in December 2017
5. The winners of the Hero Hockey Champions Trophy 2016 - Australia
6. One place to be nominated by the FIH Executive Board

Women

1. The Host – China
2. The 2016 Olympic Champions – Great Britain
3. The 2018 Hockey World Cup Champions – to be advised in August 2018
4. The 2017 Hockey World League Champions – to be advised in November 2017
5. The winners of the Hockey Champions Trophy 2016 – Argentina
6. One place to be nominated by the FIH Executive Board

If teams qualify under more than once under criteria 1 – 5, the additional teams will be invited by the FIH Executive Board.

Approved by FIH Executive Board 3 July 2015

